A secluded island hotel just off the English coast becomes a crime scene, as a scandal-inducing femme-fatale is felled. All the guests on the island are suspects, but are they alone and is all quite what it seems?

Multi-award-winning theatre company New Old Friends present Crimes On the Coast, a comedy thriller directed by James Farrell (Associate Director - The 39 Steps, West End). The show enjoyed a sell-out national tour in 2018 (under previous title Crimes Under the Sun) and hits the road again in 2019 featuring four actors playing multiple outrageous characters, and a plot that romps along in the company's trademark inventive style.

Inspired by Agatha Christie, Noel Coward and PG Wodehouse, you are invited on an hilarious but murderous trip to a classic English Riviera retreat.

"Murder most fun" - British Theatre Guide

"A whodunnit romp" - The Stage

"Display of comic acting it would be hard to see equalled anywhere"
- Theatre Bath

Gracefool Collective PRESENTS THIS IS NOT A WEDDING

Thursday 28th November - 7.30pm
.....

Tickets

Adult: £12.00

Concession: £10.00

Expect to laugh, cry and shimmy along to the classics whilst four bridal-clad women attempt to entertain, delight and maintain their dignity in a desperate last ditch effort to work out what the hell it all means.

Witness a generation's experience of pressure, conformity & expectation in this radical and apocalyptic reimagining of some of our most recognisable ceremonies. As time runs out and the clock counts down, four defiant brides attempt to please everyone and no one, forging their own absurd path through the wilderness of tradition. Using their signature concoction of wildly entertaining dance theatre, Gracefool invite YOU to be guests at the non-wedding event of the year as they attempt to come to terms with coming of age in a high pressure, low tolerance, success driven society.

It's not a wedding, but it is a celebration, and everyone is invited.
