

Task A Grading Criteria Introduction to employability in the catering and hospitality industry

Task	Pass	Merit	Distinction
	The candidate has	The candidate has achieved everything at pass grade and	The candidate has achieved everything at pass and merit grade and
A	gathered suitable information for each of the contrasting areas required [Facts are basic and some areas may not go beyond the obvious (eg only staff in sight noted)]. <input type="checkbox"/> basic description of job roles and shift patterns at each staffing level <input type="checkbox"/> Identified minimal skills and personal qualities required <input type="checkbox"/> listed examples of training, experience and qualifications are appropriate for the job roles. <input type="checkbox"/>	provided detailed information, showing research of more than 'first sight' and of the links between the sector and the features of establishments <input type="checkbox"/> described the key features of the different establishments <input type="checkbox"/> suitable distinctions are made between aspects of the job roles eg differences in the structure but missing other aspects eg working conditions <input type="checkbox"/> appropriate qualifications are given for chosen job roles. <input type="checkbox"/>	information is full and descriptive, giving detail that provides information <input type="checkbox"/> provided a clear explanation of the different establishments. <input type="checkbox"/> full and detailed descriptions are made of each job role at the different levels <input type="checkbox"/> opportunities for training and gaining qualifications are provided in relation to the job roles. <input type="checkbox"/>