SHORT COURSES

We offer some specialist part time and short courses in Teaching, Education and Training at our Kingston Maurward Campus. For those in a training role or just starting out in teaching, the Level 3 Award in Education and Training gives a great introduction to planning inclusive sessions, understanding the role of the teacher and how to use assessment.

For those in a role teaching learners 16 years or older in the Further Education sector, we offer the new Diploma in Teaching (FE and Skills). Both are offered on a part-time basis in an early evening session.
